Notes for THOMAS CURRICOMB:

The Brothertown movement began with a general meeting of Indians at Mohegan, March 13, 1773, to hear and discuss the proposal. After several days of debate, they formed a committee, consisting of one representative from each Indian tribe and directed them to go to Oneida with their request for land. The Indians were unable to send their representatives at once, as they had hoped, but later that summer Joseph Johnson sent an appeal to Sir William Johnson, Superintendent of Indian Affairs, and received his promise to secure land for them from the Oneidas. Joseph Johnson then sent letters to the seven Indian communities describing the status of the project and urging others to join:

Farmington, Octr 13th A.D. 1773

This once more, we of the Tribe at Farmington send greeting to all our Indian Brethren at Mohegan, Nihantuck, Pequitt, Stonington, Narragansett and Montauk, Brethren. We love you, and wish your well-being both in this Life and that which is to come. We ask your Serious Attentions a Moment. Dear Brethren, with humility we undertake to write you, begging that ye would remember the Affair of which we so earnestly talked last Spring at the town of Mohegan. We beg that ye would this once more take this Affair under your deliberate Considerations, let it not drop through since we have encouragements on every side. We have encouragement from His Honour, Sir William Johnson, Baronet, and thing look promising. Let us take Courage friends and let us step forward like men. We beg that ye would by all means Send a Man out of Each Tribe, that they may go with us, and Seek a Country for our Brethren, is it not worth while. Surely it is. be so good as to show yourselves me, for General Johnson Expects us at his house [the] last of this month, and if we do not make our appearance, he will think that we are only talkers, and not worthy of Notice. how foolish shall we feel if we be despised by General Johnson. But dear Brethren, we will not multiply words, seeing that ye are men, and it is to be hoped wise men. Consider of things, and do that which is right, by no means be discouraged, but dear Brethren, let us put our trust in that God who ruleth in the Armies of Heaven, and doeth his pleasure among the Inhabitants of this lower World – if God be for us this is Enough, he can comfort us Even in a Wilderness. let us consider of our Condition, let us think of our Children, let us think of time to come. We mention these things to put you in Remembrance.

Brethren, if the men chosen last spring be backward to go to the Mohawk Country be so good as to Send others in their room, and Encourage one another. if Money is scarce, let us try to carry little provisions in our Packs, which will be of considerable help, let the men that go try to get the good will of the Women and let the kind women make little Yoke-hegg. We will try to help them with little Provisions when they go from here. our kind Women send a word of Encouragement and say that they will make a little yoke hegg to give to the travelers.

So we must End. Wishing you all well: and we would beg that those men shall go, come to our town be sure by the 23d day of the Month, as we purpose to Set of from here the 25th of October, or of this month.

Let all Christians pray for us every Day. So farewell.

CURRICOMB, CORCOM, CURRACOMP, CORRECOMP, ACCORRECOMPT.-- Tunxis tribe, Farmington, Conn.

This was a prominent Indian family of the original Tunxis stock. Andrew Correcmpt owned several tracts of land in Farmington. He served during the French wars in Capt. Aaron Hitchcock's company in 1756, in Col. Nathan Whiting's company in 1760, and in Capt. Samuel Dimock's company, N.Y. troops, in 1762.

Andrew Curricomb (Andrew), born in 1747, was prominent in the emigration plans, and an early settler at Brothertown. After the Revolution, in which he was said to have served while at West Stockbridge, Mass., he returned to Oneida with his family. He settled on lots 120 and 121, which were divided among his heirs in 1818. His wife's name was Abigail. Chn.: I. Elizabeth, b. 1768, m. Benjamin Toucee. II. Anne, b. 1770, m. James Wiggins. III. Abigail, b. 1778. IV. Eliakim, b. 1780. V. Thomas, b. July 14, 1786. VI. Jesse, b. 1791. VII. Moses, b. 1794, d. about 1815. Elizabeth and Anne were probably children by a first wife. Eliakim married Martha Onion and received lots 57 and 58 in 1804. He removed about 1828.

Jesse Curricomb in 1818 inherited lots 120 and 121, with his brother Eliakim, David Toucee and the heirs of Anne Wiggins, and he had lot 142 assigned to him in 1824. His wife's name was Phebe, who died before 1834, when her husband and son John removed to Wisconsin. The son was drowned in the Fox River.

A committee of Isaac Bidwell, Solomon Cowles and William Wadsworth was appointed by the General Assembly to draw deeds for the Indians Living on this Tract, when there was a general Exodus to the west.

The 200 - acres had been divided into lots in 1754 - map in Town Clerks office.

Deed from Andrew Corcomp (Curcump) by and with the advice and direction of Col. John Strong and Elnathan Gridley, two of the Committee appointed by the General Assembly of the Colony, to advise and direct in the sale of Indian lands, "for fifteen pounds, ten shillings, to Palmer Sweet, two pieces or parallels of land situate in Farmington, on the west side of the Pequabuck Meadow, so-called one of said peaces is that on which I now dwell, and contains one and one half acres, with a small dwelling house standing on said land, bounded east on highway by the common fence (present Meadow Road) (New Britain and) west on land of Samuel Adams (an Indian) north on land of Charles Wimpey (Indian and south on ye highway leading to New Cambridge.

The house was probably built by Andrew Corcump ca.1750. The front part (now at Bunnell property) probably built by Palmer Sweet ca.1785.

"The first emigration of families from Brothertown, N.Y., to Green Bay was in the year 1831...The company of 1831 was composed of nearly forty persons, chiefly the large families of William and Elkanah Dick and Randall Abner. Thomas Commuck and his wife Hannah, Isaac Scippio and David Johnson also went in this party. Of these the following were living in 1895: Barbara Dick, Delila Dick Brushel, Hannah Abner Commuck, Rebecca Abner Johnson, and Elias and David Dick. They made their settlement at Kaukauna on the Fox River, and built their log houses. The land was not the best adapted to farming and they did not intend to remain there. The treaty which gave them a township farther south on the east shore of Winnebago Lake was then pending and was ratified the following year. Hence they had not long to remain, and they moved to their final location in 1832 and 1833."

"A Man Called Sampson" by Will and Rudi Ottery

Eliza E. Sampson Dick born 1829 at Brothertown, NY, died July 15, 1895, at Brothertown, WI. On November 11, 1850 at Calumet Co., Eliza married Benjamin G. Dick, born 1826 at Brothertown, NY, died Aug. 25, 1864 at Andersonville, during the civil war.

Benjamin was the son of Elkanah Dick and Sarah Ann Tousey Dick, both Brothertown Indians. His father was prominent in the affairs of the Brothertown tribe, and his ancestry traced back to the Narragansett tribe.

Benjamin's mother was a descendant of the Tunxis Chief Wowowis. Eliza and Benjamin were married at the Calumet Co. home of Eliza's sister, Wealtha Bullman. During the Civil War, Benjamin enlisted in Co. G, 36th Wisconsin Volunteers.

After Benjamin's death, Eliza continued to live an active life. The April 29, 1882 issue of Chilton Times reported a visit to her daughter in Brown Co., and the Nov. 24, 1883 issue indicated that her daughter Florence visited her. A bit of excitement in Eliza's life was covered in the May 17, 1883 issue, after Eliza's cloak and bonnet were stolen by a Calumet Co. woman. The thief was arrested and jailed for fifty days. The east part of lot 146 was assigned to Eliza, but she eventually moved to the home of Edgar Dick, one of the headmen of the Brothertown, and a cousin of her late husband. Census records list her occupation as a housekeeper. The children of Eliza and Benjamin were:

Florence Dick, born 1851, married William Reed.

Clara Dick, born January, 1854, married Benjamin Welch, Charles Cook, and William Gardner.

Sarah Jane Dick born 1856 married Fred Johnson.

Records Relating to the Kansas Claims of the New York Indians, application that time was Russel, Post Office Bloomville, Lincoln County, Wisconsin.

He lists Abraham Denny's children as:

Catherine, Phebe, Dolly, Moses, Mary Ann, John, Amos. He states, " I believe my grandfather did have land in Kansas. My grandfather, Abraham Denny went to Kansas as a delegate with the first band of Oniedas from New York and I believe some time the next year or a little later he returned to New York and then started back to Kansas with another party or band and died on or near the Osage River."

Letter enclosed with the application:

Benjamin F. Welch

Bloomville, Wis.

Sir:

In the matter of your application as an Onieda Indian for participation in the fund arising from the judgement of the Court of Claims in favor of the New York Indians, you are advised --

That your claim has been marked for rejection for the reason it appears you claim only through your mother, Mary Ann Welch. It further appears that the said Mary Ann Welch's mother was a white woman, and the Onieda tribe traces descent through the mother.

It also appears that neither you nor your mother was ever enrolled or recognized as a member of the Onieda tribe.

Very respectfully,

Acting Commissioner

A.P. Madison and wife started for Little Falls last Monday to be at the G.A.R. encampment at that place.

Nearly every old soldier in town is at Little Falls this week attending the G.A.R. encampment. The old boys enjoy such occasions, and in fighting their battles over again, become young again.

Obituary - Newspaper - Todd County Argus - Issue Feb 13, 1896 Page 3 Col 3
At Asbury Hospital, Minneapolis, Friday, Feb. 7th, 1896, Wealthy J., wife of A.P. Madison, aged 40 years.

The remains arrived here Saturday evening and the funeral was held in the M.E. church Sunday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. J.F. Locke officiating and the interment made in the cemetery here.

Deceased was taken sick in September, the trouble being an internal tumor, and as a last hope she was taken to the hospital to undergo an operation. She was unable to stand the operation and passed away after the preliminaries to the operation had been preformed. When she was married to Mr. Madison sixteen years ago she was a widow with one daughter, who is married now. Two children were born of the second marriage, the younger being about two years of age, who are left with the husband and several brothers to mourn her death.

Mr. Madison has had his full share of grief, as he has followed two companions to the grave beside two sons, and when the train arrived Saturday, bearing the remains, a large crowd met him at the depot to extend help and sympathy.

One of the saddest affairs that has been reported from this vicinity in some time was the death of Mr. and Mrs. Almeron DeGroat, which occurred on Friday of last week. Mr. DeGroat had been a sufferer for some time with dropsy and his wife had also been ill. Of late both had been drinking very hard. Friday morning a neighbor called at the DeGroat house and getting no response to a knock at the door, walked in. Mr. DeGroat was found dead in the bed and his wife, by his side, in an unconscious condition. A physician was called but was unable to revive the woman and she died at 11 o'clock Friday night. The doctor said that the immediate cause of their death was alcoholism. The funeral of both victims was held Monday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock from the house, Rev. G.F. Fons officiating. They were buried in one grave in the Phillip's Cemetery. Mr. DeGroat leaves two brothers in Minnesota and a brother and sister at Seymour and Mrs. DeGroat leaves a niece at Quinney to mourn their sad ending.

Dear Friend

I now try to write you a few lines in Answer to your kind letter which I received 4 days ago but I have not felt like trying to write and in fact I don't now. I am now in the hospital and have been here 8 days today. I am having the typhoid fever though I haven't been so very sick yet only a day, still I am getting pretty weak. But I hope by being careful to get around again. There is 13 in here sick from our Company mostly fevers. D. J. Adams is sick here in the same room with me. All of the Brothertown boys here are in good health I believe. A week ago today poor Ira Wiggins died here in the hospital, he was here 9 days and after he had been here 3 or 4 days he didn't have his senses. They called it the typhoid fever. He was buried with all the usual ceremonies of burying soldiers. There has four died here since I came here but the most of them was wounded men. You say you have enlisted. Well I must say to you to be careful when you go into camp, don't expose yourself any more than you can help. I have got almost sick of Cavalry. I think it is harder upon a man than Infantry. I wish I could get into some Reg't where some Brothertown boys are.

The weather continues hot here yet and fruit is plenty of all kinds but that is all the good it does me. There is no fighting going on anywhere near here lately. But in the N.E. part of the state there has been plenty between the State Militia and the guerillas. I tell you I find some difference in the fare here than the fare you have up there when you are sick.

You never told me how Bill O'Brien got along. I should like to know what kind of a crop was raised on Mrs. Harts farm. But I must close for this time, hoping to hear from you soon. Give my best respects to all your folks.

Yours Truly

J. W. Dick
